

PEDESTRIAN SAFETY ENFORCEMENT WORKSHOP

Thursday, September 2, 2010, 8:30 AM – 4:00 PM
Loudermilk Center, 40 Courtland St. SE, Atlanta, GA (View map.)

Free of charge. POST credits offered. Lunch provided.
Register early!

Presented by PEDS with support from the Federal Highway Administration and the Georgia Governor's Office of Highway Safety.

Interactive classroom training and live field exercises.

- Review Georgia laws that apply to driver encounters with pedestrians and cyclists.
- Learn the most effective pedestrian safety tactics.
- Get the news media to increase your enforcement impact.
- Identify how and where to use enforcement for pedestrian safety concerns.
- Participate in field training to conduct targeted crosswalk enforcements.

Who Should Attend?

- Supervising traffic enforcement officers from urban and suburban areas.
- Traffic officers charged with protecting pedestrian safety.

Presenters:

- George Brayan: Washington, D.C. Dept. of Transportation's Pedestrian Program Coordinator and former Pedestrian, Bicycle, and School Zone Safety Coordinator for the Maryland Highway Safety Office where his work led to a five-fold increase in pedestrian safety activities.
- Officer Arlinda Page: 20-year member of the District of Columbia Metropolitan Police Department, with 15 years in the Traffic Safety and Specialized Enforcement Division where she conducts pedestrian safety enforcement operations, including crosswalk stings.

Registration Deadline: August 30

To register, simply provide the name of your police department and each attending officer's full name, rank, email and telephone to PEDS at 404-685-8732 or rsvp@peds.org.